CINCINNATI DANCEMAKER DEBUTS WORLD PREMIERE ALONGSIDE CHOREOGRAPHERS FROM 3 MAJOR DANCE COMPANIES

Following the sold out run of his wildly popular "Hot Chocolate", David Choate returns to the Aronoff Center February 17 & 18 with "It's Love" a quadruple bill concert event.

Joined on the bill by Derek Brockington of the Internationally acclaimed, Dance Theatre of Harlem, Da'Rius Malone of the World Renowned Dayton Contemporary Dance Company, and nationally sought after choreographer and creator of DANCEFIX, Heather Britt - Mr. Choate describes the experience as a "chance of a lifetime" and a "dream come true."

Each choreographers piece will be performed by the dancers of Revolution Dance Theatre, Cincinnati's first and Only African American Professional Ballet Company.

Tickets are available for as low as $24! Head to revodance.com to reserve your seats today.
